

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 3A

PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER
21 MARCH 1979

National and International News in Brief

NOTES:

Stansfield Turner, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has welcomed a bill that would imprison past or present CIA employes for up to 10 years if found guilty of disclosing the identities of U. S. intelligence officers, Sen. Lloyd Bentsen (D-Tex.) said.